Dear

For 51 years, New Jersey DECA has helped shape tomorrow's leaders in marketing, hospitality, and management. DECA is a national association of high school marketing students who compete in events that directly contribute to each member being college and career ready when they graduate. This is achieved through regional, state, and international competition, each of which promotes competence, integrity, and teamwork. NJ DECA holds two state career development conferences that bring together over 2,600 marketing students from throughout New Jersey, for one week, to engage in over 50 competition-based marketing-related events.

As part of our program for the state conferences, we are organizing an Ultimate DECA Giveaway for the student competitors. We were hoping that your organization might supply any gift items for the conferences. This will be an excellent way to inform NJ DECA students about your products. Any donation item your company might be able to provide would be most appreciated.

The NJ DECA state conference will take place on February 26-March 1, 2012 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Our goal is to provide an exciting and fun-filled event for all of our state competitors. If you are able to help, please send your donation to the following address:
